

In 2002, I had a discussion with Leonard Lake about a study he and Nan Vance conducted that measures the persistence of Cypripedium fasciculatum in an area of partial overstory removal and prescribed burn. He and Vance published a paper on the results.

Michael Hays.